

Monday April 6

Good morning everyone! I hope you had a great weekend connecting with family and having fun. Welcome to our first official week on Teams! By now, you have figured out how it works a little bit and many of you have already been posting and submitting assignments! This is excellent. I'm going to be posting and sending an email about expectations for Online Learning and using Teams. One of the first things we need to do when transitioning to Online Learning, is to learn how to be responsible and safe online students. For that reason, we will be completing the Digital Citizenship Quest put out by the Burnaby School District.

See below for all of the activities and tasks Ms. Wilson and I have for you today. Remember, that Online Learning means you get to be very independent – no one is going to be checking up on you and keeping you on track except you. That leaves a lot of potential to procrastinate until the assignments are due! The purpose of me giving you this daily schedule is to help you keep on track. Follow it!

Today you should:

- Complete the Digital Citizenship Quest Part 1 assignment.
 - Find it in "Assignments" on Teams
- Check the weekly schedule for SS/ADST/Career
 - Find it in Files and in the Post section of Social Studies or ADST
- LA – Read!
 - We are going to be starting an assignment next week based on the Battle of the Book book you have at home.
 - Please finish the book by Monday, April 13th
- PE – Just Dance "Animals"
 - If you have Just Dance already, great!
 - If you have a phone you can hold in your hand, you can get the app free to track your moves – <https://justdancenow.com/>
 - Don't have a phone? That's fine! You can still follow along here - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RxoZAnVBWio>
 - Don't forget to spend some time outside today too 😊

If you have any questions, you can always send me an email or ask someone else in the class. Have a fantastic day everyone!

Virtual hugs,

Ms. Baird
