

Good morning, afternoon, or evening Division 1! Whenever you log into Teams today. Aujourd'hui c'est mardi le sept, avril.

Here's a riddle for you. I'll tell you the answer on Thursday at our first Community Circle meeting on Teams!

"I can be flipped and broken but I never move. I can be closed, and opened, and sometimes removed. I am sealed by hands. What am I?"

Send me your answer in an email before our meeting to get credit.

Have a terrific Tuesday, everyone!

Here's your outline for today:

- Practice Assignment – some of you haven't done this yet, and for some of you I wrote in your feedback that you need to make changes and re-turn-in before the due date.
- LA – Spring Break Journal Assignment – if you have previously sent this to me as an email or shared it, you need to put it into the assignment now for it to be marked
- SS – CLOZE notes assignment is due today. Check on ADST schedule
