

Morning message:

Good morning Division 9! It is so good to be back. I hope you have had fun exploring our class blog. I look forward to adding great images of your hard work. Have a great day and I will see you at 10:00 for our Zoom meeting.

Love,
Ms. Fischer

9:30

Daily 3 (Language Arts Learning)

Refresh your memory and teach your family what Daily 3 looks like...do you remember what to do for each station? Look at the posters and explain them to your parents (and siblings too if they are interested).

<https://sd41blogs.ca/fischerj/daily-3/>

Then check out the Word Work options. Which of these are your favourites? <https://sd41blogs.ca/fischerj/word-work/>

Or maybe your favourite is not listed...why do you think that is? (I know I love Bananagrams—but I don't have the tiles at home to play...)

Can you think of a creative way to play your favourite Word Work game at home?

10:00

Zoom Meeting

Be ready to share one thing you really want me to know!

(Check your email for the invite and remember you will be in the waiting room until I let you in—be patient.)

Directed Drawing:

Here is an opportunity for you to create an amazing spring flower...all you need is one die and a sharpie (or other marker if you have it).

Don't forget to use the whole page...

Email me some photos of your finished flowers!

11:00

DANCE

You can use the GoNoodle site for dance today.

Warm Up: Banana, Banana, Meatball dance.

Activity: Now, you can pick one of your favourite songs and make a pattern dance. What will you call it?

Cool Down: You can use this video to calm your body. You could use this video anytime during the day when you feel like relaxing your body.

Practice some more dances using Mrs. Jaffer's YouTube Channel!

Check out Mrs. Jaffer's Blog:

*Math

We're going to begin a new unit in math—Measurement. Parents can check out the letter for more information:

<https://sd41blogs.ca/fischerj/current-notice/>

I know you probably have lots of ideas to share with me about what you already know about measuring things and what tools you might use to measure with.

Here's your chance:

You can use a t-chart, a web, or a list to organize your ideas:

Brainstorm a list of things you could measure and tools you might use to measure with—draw them on a piece of paper (label each one if you can—K's you can use the beginning letter sound, but 1's I want you to try the whole word...don't forget our spelling strategy of: beginning sound___ ending sound) then take a picture and send it to me at:

Jacqueline.fischer@burnabyschools.ca I'll post some of your pictures on my blog.

I look forward to seeing your ideas!

*Special Project

In the next while, we are going to be creating a lot of work...and we need to have a safe place to keep it. In our classroom we have bins and duo-tangs, but many of you don't have those at home.

So today we're going to make a magazine file holder to keep our most important work.

	You will find the instructions here: https://sd41blogs.ca/fischerj/special-projects/ You will need to gather some materials: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cereal box • Ruler • Marker or pencil • Scissors • Decorating or painting materials <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stickers • Magazine photos • Fancy lettering • Old wrapping paper • Your own ideas—get creative! Email me a photo of your completed project, and I'll post some on the blog so you can admire the work of your classmates! (you can even comment!) Don't forget to show OWNERSHIP and clean up ALL your materials!
2:00	Games & Choices If you finish your art project early—go straight to Games & Choices. What will you choose to do today? Be creative... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Will you play a game? • Build a new world out of Lego? • Take your dolls on a camping trip? • Start a restaurant? So many ideas...wish I was there to see your creations!
