

Morning message:

Hello Division 9. It's been a busy week. I've really enjoyed talking with your families and look forward to connecting again! Kash—we loved your show and tell!! I hope you have a great day, and don't forget to have your singing voice ready for the Zoom call this morning! 😊

Friday April 17th

Today's Inspiration:

Note	I will be having a math/cooking/science lesson next week (Wednesday pm) via Zoom. If you would like to try the recipe at home you will need: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Banana(s)• Chocolate chips• Toothpicks• Margarine• Coconut, sprinkles, chopped peanuts (optional)
8:55	Gym Grab your skipping rope or a soccer ball and head outside to enjoy some exercise—If we were at school, we would continue to practice our skipping for the Jump Rope for Heart event...so skip away. If you're looking for a skipping challenge check out the images below...
9:30	Drama Choose your favourite story (I like Green Eggs and Ham) and perform it as a Reader's Theater (here's one to watch) Does your family have time to join you? Maybe a brother or sister? Have fun!

10:00	*Math Journals Find 3 crayons of different lengths, place them in order from tallest to shortest—then draw your results—Can you label the longest crayon and the shortest crayon? Send me your work: Jacqueline.fischer@burnabyschools.ca
10:30	Recess
10:45	*D.E.A.R. (Read to Self) Find some books, a quiet spot, and read to yourself for 15 minutes. Do you have some 'reading' glasses or finger eyeballs to read with?
11:00	Zoom Call for Francesco's Birthday! Show & Tell: Francesco Check your email for the code to join...don't forget I will have you in the waiting room and must let you in—so be patient.
11:30	*MUSIC  Check out Mrs. Ishii's Blog:
12:00	Lunch
1:00	Theme I've been thinking about all the people who are still going to work day after day to keep us safe and taken care of. I had some groceries delivered the other day, and I made sure to thank the delivery person, but I wondered how was he feeling? Were my words enough? Is there another way I can thank him? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What about the mail delivery person? • The people who drive the trains (my brother is one of them—and works every day to deliver goods and materials we need)? • The nurses and doctors? The bus drivers? • The garbage and recycling people? The list goes on and on... Today I want you to think about them... We have two genres of stories to choose from: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Fiction-pretend or make believe and 2. Non-Fiction-real, true information. Please go to Bookflix (don't forget your card and PIN) and read either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • "I Stink" (Fiction)

- "Garbage Truck" (Non-Fiction)
(You can also play the comprehension games if you like... 😊)

Once you've read a story, I'd like you to choose a community helper (maybe your garbage man) and make them a Thank You card. What do you appreciate about their work? What kind words can you say to them?

Take one piece of paper and 'hamburger fold' it

Create a beautiful cover—use your most imaginative ideas... Then write a message inside. You can ask your family to help you 'deliver' your card. How can you do that and maintain your distance? Wouldn't it be fun to watch the garbage man open your card...?

Remember to show OWNERSHIP--Don't forget to tidy up all your materials— 'you are in charge of your actions'.

Games & Choices

What will you choose to do today?

- Will you create a game?
- Build the tallest tower?
- Start a new story? see if you can remember how to make a book out of one piece of paper
- Create a landscape with your crayons?

So many ideas...wish I was there to see your creations! Send me a photo if you like at Jacqueline.fischer@burnabyschools.ca
