

Morning message:

Hello Class. It was so much fun doing writing with you all yesterday. I also loved seeing the pictures of your Monkey Bites—Yum!

See you later today, I will teach you how to make a book for our animal research project. I'm going to learn about pigs!!

Friday April
24th

Today's Inspiration:

	Next Friday we will have another Zoom cooking lesson. You will need the following ingredients if you think you would like to try the recipe at home: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Peanut or any nut butter • Jam • Bread
8:55	Gym Inside or Outside today??? INSIDE: Check out the Resources page (look under Physical Health & Education) on our website for the dances we do inside our classroom when the gym is closed. They are all available on YouTube! OUTSIDE: Grab your skipping rope, a soccer ball or your bicycle and head outside to enjoy some exercise—If we were at school, we would continue to practice our skipping for the Jump Rope for Heart event...so skip away. If you're looking for a skipping challenge check out the image below... A. Single Freestyles 1. Side Swing
9:30	*Theme Today you need to choose an animal for our research project...you can look on Bookflix, or the school Library Catalogue site for Canadian Animal Ideas.

10:00	Drama Now that you have chosen an animal—what Non-Fiction story could you tell about that animal? Can you act it out? You might include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Where does it live? • What does it eat? • How is it born? Or you might make up a fiction story where you animal can talk...You choose!
10:30	Recess
10:45 	D.E.A.R. (Read to Self) Find some books, a quiet spot, and read to yourself for 15 minutes. Do you have some 'reading' glasses or finger eyeballs to read with
11:00	*Math When we measure, we use a standard unit of measurement—on a ruler it is centimeters...but we can also measure with any item! Today we will measure with a pair of socks!! They MUST BE the same size! I would like you to choose 3-5 items in your home to measure with your socks. How will you keep track of how many socks long it is? Will you use tally marks? Or rely on your memory? Draw and record your answers and send them to me—I can't wait to see what you measure.
11:30	MUSIC  Check out Mrs. Ishii's Blog Have you sent her a soundscape yet? I've heard 3 so far and they were AWESOME!! Last chance because she has a new assignment for next week!
12:00	Lunch
1:00	Games & Choices Writing Today I would like you to write about your plan for Games & Choices time. What centre will you choose at home? Who will you play with? What will you do/build/create? How do you think it will go? Draw a picture of what you think will happen...

1:30 	Zoom Today we will learn how to make a book for our Animal Research Project...you will need: blank or lined paper (2 pieces), scissors, yarn or string of any colour—and your listening ears!!!  Show and Tell: Jun
2:00	 Games & Choices Follow your plan from the above writing lesson. Did it work out the way you imagined it? Or did you completely change your idea? Either way—that's okay!! Don't forget I asked for a photo of your creative thinking yesterday...
3:02	Dismissal
