

Assignment #2

What does leadership mean to you?

Your second assignment in this course is to look for a quote based on leadership that speaks to you. It can be any quote that has meaning to you. Using the quote and the author, design a one page poster. These posters will be put around the class to remind us what we will be working toward for the course.

On the back of your poster you need to include your reasoning for choosing the quote. This must be at least 250 words
