SERVICE WITH A SMILE

1 point/hour

These are jobs where you simply show up and do what it is you are told to do. There is no pre-work to be done and no added responsibility involved.

These are jobs that will carry a certain amount of responsibility and allow one to use some of the leadership skills studied in class. The jobs may require ongoing commitment.

These jobs will require a greater amount of responsibility and most of the skills studied in class. These jobs will often require you to give additional time to planning and will be based on an ongoing commitment.
