Dear Parents,

We completed our first week of school as a new class! It's been nice meeting and chatting with many of you over the past week, either in the morning or at dismissal. Thank you for sending me your email address so we can stay connected between home and school.

On Monday, students will bring home their school planner along with their student verification forms, which need to be completed and returned by September 22. Please remember to check your child's backpack for these school items. Below are dates of upcoming school events for September.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Hon
