

Dear Division 8 Families,

All week long, our students were enthusiastically engaged in learning hip hop and building a fun routine choreographed by Coach Stewart of THINK Yourself® Academy. It was a joy to see their energy, smiles and excitement during the practices and the performance. Below are upcoming school events in December that will be of interest to you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Hon

Spirit Week

Movie in the Library (Monday December 15)

Students can bring their lunch to the library and watch a holiday movie together.

Festive Sweater/Outfit Day (Wednesday December 17)

Show some school and holiday spirit by wearing a festive sweater or outfit.

Jolabokafloð (Thursday December 18)

Jolabokafloð which translates to "Christmas Book Flood" in English, is an Icelandic tradition celebrated on Christmas Eve, where people exchange books and spend time reading together. This tradition serves as the inspiration for our own D.E.A.R. (Drop Everything And Read) activity. Besides reading, students will also get to enjoy a cup of hot cocoa.

Report Cards (Thursday December 18) – Term 1 Reports go online for viewing

PJ & Pancake Breakfast (Friday December 19)

We will celebrate the last day before the break by wearing pajamas and enjoying a pancake breakfast.

Winter Break (Dec 22 to Jan 2) – School reopens on January 5, 2026

Best wishes to Raphael with a birthday in December!
