

Conservation Of Energy

Law: In a closed system, the total energy remains constant.

Energy cannot be created or destroyed, but energy can transform between types.

equation

$$E_T = E_k + E_g$$

For falling objects, the total energy at any point is equal to the sum of the kinetic energy and the gravitational potential energy.

