

SIGHT WORD

practice menu

Grab a flashlight, your favorite book, and turn off the lights! Read your book and try to find your sight words. When you find one, write it down.	Play a board game, like Monopoly. When you move spaces, pick a sight word to spell. For example, if you move four spaces, pick a four letter word to spell with each move.	Write your sight words with rainbow colors.
Write your sight words with white crayon. Then, color over them with a different color crayon or marker.	Build your sight words with legos.	Have an adult write your sight words with sidewalk chalk outside. Then, have them call out a sight word for you to find. Once you find it, spray it with a spray bottle.
Build your sight words with craft sticks.	Play hopscotch with sight words (instead of numbers in the boxes, write sight words).	Play sight word memory match.

SIGHT WORD

practice menu

Play sight word parking lot. Draw a parking lot on a piece of paper. Write your sight words inside each parking spot. Then, park cars inside the sight word you read.	Write your sight words in shaving cream.	Go bowling with your sight words.
Write your sight words in playdough.	Paint your sight words with water.	Play Sight Word Scavenger Hunt with post-it notes.
Get 3 cups or bowls. Have an adult hide a sight word card underneath one. Then, have them mix up the cups. Try to find the sight word.	Grab a sight word card. Find something in your house that begins with each letter. For example, the word is and. You could find an apple, necktie, and doll.	Write a story using 3 sight words.