

Making a Modern Myth

Your task is to analyze, interpret, and create a modern version of a classic historical myth. Make sure to include a summary, and storyboard prior to starting to write the myth itself.

	Extending 50 Points	Proficient 40 Points	Developing 30 Points	Emerging 20 Points
Myth Summary and Historical Background		Student has effectively summarized the myth while providing historical background.	Students has made an attempt to effectively summarize the myth with providing limited historical background.	Student has minimally summarized the myth and needs more effective historical background.
Storyboard		Student has effectively explained their retelling of myth in their 10 panel storyboard.	Student has attempted to effectively explain their retelling of myth in their 10 panel storyboard.	Student has not properly explain a logical layout of their retelling in all 10 panels of the storyboard.
Title Page		Student has represented their modern recreating of the myth in a clear and neat title page.	Student has made an attempt to properly represent their modern myth in a fairly clear and neat title page.	Student has made little attempt to properly represent their modern myth in a fairly clear and neat title page.
Basis in a Myth		Student has effectively kept the general concept of the historical myth that they have chosen.	Student has made an attempt to keep the general concept of the historical myth that they have chosen.	Student has not effectively kept the general concept of the historical myth that they have chosen.
Modern Interpretation		Student has effectively manipulated the myth to work in a modern day context.	Student has made an attempt to effectively manipulate the myth to work in a modern day context.	Student has little success in effectively manipulating the myth to work in a modern day context.
Description of Character and Setting		Student has properly described the setting and characters progression throughout the myth.	Student has attempted to describe the setting and characters progression throughout the myth.	Student has not properly described the setting and characters progression throughout the myth.
Moral Development		Student has a well established modern day moral included in the myth re-creation.	Student has made an attempt to establish a modern day moral in the myth re-creation.	Student has not established modern day moral included in the myth re-creation.

This rubric was created with Quick Rubric and can be found at -
<http://www.quickrubric.com/r#/qr/mrmurray/making-a-modern-myth>