Spring break is a great time to relax, enjoy and reinforce concepts learned at school this year. It is a time to revisit: old spelling word lists (in planner), read fiction and non-fiction books (from home or library), practice addition and subtraction skills as well as practice writing down memories and experiences created over the break. Spend time discussing concepts with your child. Ask him/her what they are reading about (ask for details). Discuss current events or events happening in the family. Discuss and support your child with writing 5 or more sentences using some describing words to make a more interesting, detailed sentence. Stress importance of correct spelling, neatness, starting each sentence with a capital letter and ending each sentence with punctuation. Enjoy your break!

School begins on Tuesday, April 2nd.
