

Music of the World a-Turnin'

Chorus

*I hear the music of the world a-turnin',
Can't you hear the sweet sounds of the world a-turnin'?
Stop, look and listen, you can hear things a-growin.
You can have music wherever you go.*

I hear the music of the world a-turnin',
There are some folks laughin', there are some folks cryin'.
Kids playin' in the streets sound sweeter than a choir.
All you gotta do is listen to hear.

Chorus

I hear the symphony of traffic in the city.
There are horns a-blowin', there are heels a-clickin',
Ashcans a-rattlin' as the sun begins to rise,
All you gotta do is listen to hear.

Chorus

The wind writes a special song for each and every day.
It's got the rain a-dancin' and the thunder a-clapping.
Don't just ignore it: there's a concert all around you.
All you gotta do is listen to hear.
