

Division II's CLASSROOM

FOR the week of
NOVEMBER 15-25

NEWS

HIGHLIGHTS

For the past two weeks we have been heavily focusing on our reading and practicing our sight words. Mrs. Chen comes in to our class on Thursdays to do reading exercises with the Grade I's while Ms. Torres does reading conferences with the K's. Mr. Yung continues to do pattern exercises for the Grade I's and Ms. Torres has begun teaching Base 10 counting. For Art, we did scratch art and got really, really, messy with the paint! To end the week, we wrote letters to Santa and we look forward to getting a letter back before the Christmas break 😊

REMINDERS

1. A friendly reminder to parents who have not sent in their media release form to our secretary, Mrs. Crawford, please do so as soon as possible. I would love to post more pictures of students with their faces, but I can not do so until I have all the forms handed in. Thank you!
2. Bright Shirt Day on Tuesday, November 30
3. Non-perishable food donations to be collected until Friday, December 3
4. Winter Craft Night Thursday, December 16 (details to come)
5. Last day of classes before the Winter Break - Friday, December 17

"Today a reader, tomorrow a leader." - Margaret Fuller

A MESSAGE FROM MRS. TORRES

Progress reports have been already sent out for Term I and I am excited for the next couple weeks before the Winter Break. We will be doing a lot of Christmas themed crafts and activities as well as a literacy/baking event with our Principal, Mrs. Young. Please keep checking our blog for updates and pictures!