

Five Senses Poem

Five senses poems use your senses to study or investigate a subject. The focus of the poem is on using similes. Similes are comparisons between two unlike things using with words "like" or "as."

Directions:

- Line 1. Tell what color an emotion or idea looks like to you.
- Line 2. Tell what the emotion or idea tastes like (imagine it has a taste)
- Line 3. Tell what the emotion or idea sounds like.
- Line 4. Tell what emotion or idea smells like.
- Line 5. Tell what the emotion or idea looks like.
- Line 6. Tell how the emotion or idea makes you feel.

Examples:

Summer is yellow.
It tastes like freshly squeezed lemonade.
It sounds like kids splashing in a lake.
It smells like the most fragrant rose in my mom's garden.
It looks like boating on our favorite lake.
It makes me feel overjoyed.

Rain is clear.
It tastes like water trickling from the faucet.
It sounds like pounding on your windows during a storm.
It smells like fresh pine trees.
It looks like sparkling dew drops on plants.
It makes me feel cool and calm.
