

Protect the Earth

A FREE Mini-BOOK
FROM EDUCATION TO THE CORE

Protect the Earth

Written by Emily Liscom
from Education to the Core

© 2013 Education to the Core

We celebrate Earth Day on April 22nd each year.

© 2013 Education to the Core

We protect our Earth all year round. On Earth Day, we honor the Earth and celebrate.

© 2013 Education to the Core

We recycle cans, plastic, and paper by putting them in a bin that has a recycling symbol on it.

© 2013 Education to the Core

You can prevent extra trash by adding biodegradable items to a compost bin outside your home. Most biodegradable items are food waste from the kitchen.

© 2013 Education to the Core

Some people celebrate Earth Day by planting a tree, plant, or flower. You can do this in your own backyard with the help of an adult!

© 2013 Education to the Core

Help clean up the Earth with your family and friends!

© 2013 Education to the Core

Earth Day is April 22nd.
How are you going to celebrate this year?

© 2013 Education to the Core